The use of funding of the landowner (landholder) and/or the local authority is a common feature of the programme. The majority of cases require further work to be done. There is a clear trend where, wherever there is a change of ownership, the landowner is required to do more work. The funding of the landowner has now increased to 40 per cent of the total.

The building of the cathedral is considered to have been begun in 1100, and the choir was consecrated in the presence of William the Conqueror and the king's army in 1120. The choir is considered to be one of the finest examples of Norman architecture in England.
